Founder and CEO, Karen Brown sits at the helm of the ground-breaking executive coaching company, Velocity Leadership Consulting.

Drawing on 30 years of success as a corporate executive, over 30,000 hours of senior executive coaching experience, and certification as a Master Neurolinguistics Programming Practitioner, Karen Brown truly understands the complex challenges CEOs and their senior teams face. She is able to elevate their performance and impact through the use of the scientifically proven Velocity Power Pathways approach.

The path from successful corporate executive to trailblazer in the field of executive coaching is connected by Karen’s personal journey to complete the Ironman World Championships as an amateur athlete.

Karen’s experience led to the creation of Velocity’s proprietary Power Pathways process. Implementing this pioneering approach empowers clients to change behavioral patterns with ease, realizing results at much greater velocity than with traditional coaching programs.

Karen Brown is a thought-leader in leadership and professional performance. Two of her books have been published on the subject, the most recent of which is Unlimiting Your Beliefs: 7 Keys to Greater Success in Your Personal and Professional Life. She is often called upon to be a subject-matter expert on leadership, delivering keynote presentations both nationally and internationally.
